

THE 33rd ANNUAL YOUNG PEOPLE'S FILM & VIDEO FESTIVAL

GUIDELINES:

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: JUNE 15, 2009

THE YOUNG PEOPLES FILM & VIDEO FESTIVAL

The Young Peoples Film & Video Festival is an annual opportunity for young Northwest film and video makers to have their work viewed by professional media artists and presented to the public. We hope the Festival encourages young people to use film and video to creatively express personal concerns, explore important social issues and share engaging stories about the world today. Winning entries are chosen by jury process, and will be shown at an awards ceremony on Sunday, September 13, 2009 at the Portland Art Museum Whitsell Auditorium, 1219 SW Park, Portland, Oregon.

RULES & ELIGIBILITY

Any young film or video maker (grades K-12) living in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Alaska, Montana or Utah may enter a film, video, animation or multimedia work in any theme or style made after September 1, 2006. Group projects as well as individual works are acceptable. All entries must be student produced. Adult guidance and instruction is permissible, but the planning production and selection of subject matter must reflect student effort. Submission deadline is June 15, 2009. (Additional information is by visiting the Film Center web site – www.nwfilm.org. There is NO entry fee.

JURY PROCESS

A jury panel of media professionals and educators will select winning entries. Criteria for selection include: age/grade, originality, artistic merit, technical achievement and conviction in investigation of subject matter. The use of original music is encouraged.
